

HEBREW ROOTS

Why did people come up with the concept of "Hebrew Roots" when the Kingdom of Heaven does not speak about it.

Malachi told them 400 years before Messiah to "Remember Moses ..." (not their Physical Hebrew Roots), in order for them to recognise the time of His visitation (Deut. 18:15 – 18). They had the correct Name to identify the one who spoke in YHVH's Name and yet they could not even accept the miracles done in the Name. Two thousand years later the true Name above all names is still hidden from the World by the Religious leaders of the last 2 000 years.

Is it to give us the ideas that the modern idea of Israel as in "State of" and the "Chosen" people of the Land with a restored Levitical system with Altar and Physical Temple on the Haram Al Sharif/Roman Antonia Fortress is YHVH's plan? ... while in Truth the renewed Covenant Scriptures speak of the good News of the Kingdom of Heaven and 1 Pet 2:9 tells us who the "Chosen" are today, whereas these "movements" are promoting concepts like the Beit Din/Sanhedrin/Noachide law concept of Judaism and World domination by Global Zionism to control people and their Minds.

ABRAM

What made Abram a Hebrew ?

"Hebrew" appears as a descendant of Eber or as one who crossed over.

Abram started off in Ur of the Chaldees and was Called out to Canaan to be set apart from his past life as well as the comfortable cities of the Plain as YHVH began his work of Redemption through him.

All the other descendants of Eber that remained behind in that area would also be "Hebrews", so our "Hebrew Roots" are not the basis of our Faith, but Father AbraHam is. There is a difference, as AbraHam was judged to be Righteous by his Faith, not because he was a "Hebrew".

Why was his name changed to AbraHam. Why is that important ? Why the H and the Y as in Psalm 68:4?

Why claim "Hebrew Roots" and the "Hebrews" as our "Father" or "Fathers" while AbraHam is the Father which is the Basis of our Faith and it was passed through the Spiritual First Born (not the Physical First Born) after AbraHam.

First mention of "Abram the Hebrew" is in Gen. 14:13.

In the renewed Covenant Scriptures, "Hebrew" is spoken of only as a language except where Paul speaks of himself with a past as a "Hebrew of the Hebrews" physically as a descendant of the People of Israel of the Tribe of Benjamin etc., but consider very carefully what he says in the context of Philippians 3 especially verse 8 where he says he considers those things Dung or Garbage. And yet that has become the "Definition" of how people identify themselves as opposed purely and simply as "Followers of the Anointed One of Yisra'EL".

Although the word for "follower of the Anointed One" appears in the Translations as "Christian" 3 times, it most definitely does not describe a 21st Century claim of being a "Christian" as fulfilling the Scriptural definition of a Citizen of the Kingdom of Heaven.

So yes, some of the Hebrews were part of YHVH's plan (Jonah was a "Hebrew") and the Temple records proved people's genealogy as Shaul (who became Paul) claims, but many were not, and 2 000 years later?? The Physical comes first and leads on to the Spiritual for those that have eyes to see and ears to hear.

This is also the point Paul is making in Romans 9 - 11 and Philippians 3.

Remember Matt. 27:25 where all the people answered, "His blood is on us and on our children!". Then Consider Matt. 27 especially verse 21, where the majority led by the Religious hierarchy chose BAR ABBAS (Son of a "Father") over YaHUsa the Son of YHVH. The Father of Bar Abbas was ...? - so they chose another Son and another "Father" over YHVH's Son whom they rejected.

So, as a People or "Nation" they rejected YaHUsa and therefore YHVH, but as individuals they have come into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Gen. 11 gives Abram's direct lineage from Shem and he has the interaction with MelekTzadek in Gen. 14:18-19.

Abram had his name "changed" to AbraHam in Gen. 17 and became the "Father" of our Faith.

A very important point is that Ya'akov had his name changed completely to Yisra'EL at the Yabbok to become the Overcomer with EL, and thereafter walked in the Flesh as Ya'akov and in the Spirit as Yisra'EL.

Scripture talks of the Physical descendants but Spiritually "Chosen" in the lineage of AbraHam, Isaac, Ya'akov and the 12 Physical Sons that became 12 Tribes as being a Physical group of people living in Egypt (where YaHUseph had been "Chosen", and Reuben the Physical First born was prophesied to "no longer excel") when YHVH remembered his Covenant with AbraHam and came down to take them out to fulfil Exodus 19:5-6 which was the ability to live in direct relationship with YHVH in freedom in Canaan in the planned restored MelekTzadek Order.

Then the failure of the Golden Calf led to the Levitical Order.

Then, after 40 years and after the Physically circumcised generation from Egypt lay buried on the way and the next generation crossed over the Yarden and YHVH rolled away Egypt from his people at Gilgal, they began to claim and take over the inheritance that YHVH had made ready for them when the time was right.

All this Physical typology has a Spiritual application for us today that are ready to enter in to the fulfillment of the ages. We are in "Exile" from our Inheritance and our eventual home coming according to Hebrews 11.

What makes a modern day "Jew" in the claim of "Hebrew" and "Israel"?

They claim descent from the Southern Kingdom of YaHudah, Benjamin and the Levites associated with them, but we know history has shown a different reality for those with eyes to see.

Some claim to be "Jews" or Israeli's by Race or birth, some by Religion, but globally their First Allegiance is to the State of Israel after their country of residence and is more seen by them as a dispersed "Tribe" with a Culture similar to a Roman Catholic, who has allegiance first to the Vatican and then their country of domicile which comes second.

The Levitical Order continued UNTIL YaHUsa came and RESTORED the originally planned Order of MelekTzadek Priesthood and we received the Renewed Covenant Scriptures as our guide and Prophetically laid out future guided by YaHUsa himself as Paul's teacher and the Revelation to YaHuchanan directly.

NAME

It is interesting that Messianic Judaism uses Yeshua/Y'shua, which is what they say means: "He is Salvation", but actually it is merely a play on the word for Salvation (Strong's H3444) minus the Hey at the end of the "Salvation" word, whereas the full Name YHUsa (= "Salvation of YH") defines "whose" Salvation it is.

Why would they leave out the critical letter "Hey" that would define and identify to us His authentic authority and His function in the full Name and as the Salvation of YaH as the one who came 2 000 years ago and would take us to the "House of many mansions", the Spiritual Promised Land.

In the Typology of preparing to take Yisra'El across the Jordan into the Physical Promised Land, Hoshea had his name "changed" from Hey-Vav-shin-ayin to Yod-Hey-Vav-shin-ayin (YaHUsa) in Num 13.16, while the One who came 2 000 years ago is presented by Messianic Judaism (which was the precursor of the "Messianic" and "Hebrew Roots" and "Christian Zionist" Movements) without the definitive "Hey".

Is it because of Judaism's teachings embedded in their Minds/Psyche, that denies the next reality as laid out in the Renewed Covenant Scriptures and still see Him as fulfilling the role of the sinful natured Prince (offering Sin sacrifices for himself) of Ezekiel 40 - 48 and taking the "Two Houses of Israel" back to the "Land" in a "Greater Exodus"?

(The "Greater Exodus" is what the Hebrew Roots/Messianic teachers teach, yet what came before the original Exodus was the 10 plagues. We find the same in Revelation in the Seals, Trumpets and Bowl judgments and then it carries on to Rev 21/22 which is a very different outcome. One was Physical to "teach" us the Spiritual future.)

Many are then "led" to unintentionally proclaim the same eschatology in the Spiritual realm every time they speak or write that name as a name encapsulates all that a personage represents, like ... Character, Identity, Purpose, Mission, Kingdom affiliation and everything about them.

AREA

It is also interesting that the "Hebrews" originated in the same area as the clay tablets of Sumer and the Code of Hammurabi from before the time of Moses and is also thought by some to be the area of the original Garden of Eden.

Also interesting is that Anthropologists divide Mankind into 3 different distinct "Races" based on "heritable physical traits" namely White, Negro and Mongoloid, and Noach's 3 Sons were Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Abram's genealogy is given in Scripture for a reason and as a descendant of Shem was therefore of "Semetic" Origin as would be Ishma'EL and Isaac from Abram's side but through Sarai Isaac was pure Semite, while Hagar was Egyptian and therefore Ishma'EL would have been a Physical mixture.

Now, Khazaria is in the middle between Europe on the one side with the Slavic Rus (Putin is a classic example today) and Asia on the other side.

The Khazars as descendants of Ashkenaz, the descendants of Japheth would then have started with certain physical features but being between Asia and Europe would end up mixed over time as the Asian Hordes from the East and Islamic Hordes from the South swept back and forth over those lands and the Ashkenazi Khazarian "Jews" of Eastern Europe and Russia going to Palestine in the last century would be very different people to the "Hebrews" that AbraHam was, and yet they claim to be THE "Semites" with THE "Hebrew" Roots.

ARE WE BEEN MISLED?

Is it possible that people have been Misled and Deceived by these ideas?

The Ruach in our day has led us back to Torah to "check" the Foundation of our Faith and Belief and Tanach which is our history teacher concerning the experience of the people of Yisra'EL before Messiah YaHUsha came. Truth in our day has been cast down in a Religious/Secular World of great deception and misleading Falsehoods .

We can certainly see that today, truth has been removed/twisted in everything, so I won't elaborate on this point, it is plain to see!

Luke 18:8 "I tell you that He will do good to them speedily. Nevertheless when the Ben Adahm comes, shall He find "emunah" (faith/trust) in the earth?"

How many true believers have you found lately?

If people have the basic idea not to Follow Judaism it is good, but then one has to move on from Moses to Messiah YaHUsha (Deut. 18:15 – 18).
